

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN-1914
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER-1914

MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1914.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

All music young Bragley would scorn.
But he'd brag on himself night and morn,
He could not tell one note
From the other, the goat,
But he knew how to blow his own horn.

Today is the last day for discount for February 1st gas bills.

CAPITAL STOCK $2,500

The Maysville Base Ball Club of the Ohio State League Re-Organized On Systematic Business Lines—Great Season Promised.

Last night the base ball enthusiasts of Maysville got together in great shape.

We are to have a this year club. The game is to be clean and the grandstand will be void of anything to give offense.

The articles of incorporation of the new club were placed in the hands of County Clerk Owens this morning.

Capital stock $2,500—500 shares at $5 per share. This however does not represent all the money.

Many friends who do not wish to take stock have generously contributed. The fund will be nearly $5,500.

Thomas L. Ewan, J. M. Cochran, W. W. McIlvaine and Henry J. Shea filed the articles of incorporation.

Maysville will be in the Ohio State League and when the umpire calls "Play ball!" at the opening game there will be the feeling we are there to stay until the last man is out at the close of the season.

Much credit is due to the men who have the enterprise in hand for the manner in which they have handled it. It insures Maysville a clean, manly game for the coming season.

GEORGE H. JACKSON

Colored Man Who Claimed He Drove the Carriage Containing Pearl Bryan and Her Murderers is Dead

One of the most noted characters ever concerned in one of the world's most celebrated murder trials is dead.

George H. Jackson, colored, formerly of this city died at Springfield, Ohio, Tuesday, and was buried there yesterday.

Jackson claims he drove the hack containing Pearl Bryan and her murderers, Jackson and Walling, the night they carried her from Cincinnati, across the bridge and out to near Fort Thomas, where they murdered the girl and cut off her head.

George Jackson was the main witness against Jackson and Walling and it was largely on his evidence that the two men were hanged on March 20, 1897.

PUTTING IN A KITCHENETTE.

RENT 4,700 ACRES FOR $10,000.

Four thousand seven hundred acres, being that portion of the farm of Cassius M. Clay lying in Nicholas County, was rented Monday to Messrs. W. D. McIntire, Henry Caywood, of Bourbon and D. M. Curry. Mr. Curry has charge of the farm, as manager for several years.

The rental is made for a period of five years and an annual rental of $10,000 a year. Possession is given March 1st.

The immense tract will be farmed extensively. About 150 acres of tobacco will be raised.

SATURDAY NIGHT

closes the sale of Muslin Underwear. It presents opportunities worth grasping. Come in and see.

THERE ARE WONDERFUL VALUES IN THIS CLEARANCE OF WOMEN'S READY-TO-WEAR GARMENTS.

With no consideration for legitimate prices the Suits, Coats, Blouses and Dresses of this season have been reduced to clear the deck for spring stock.

The styles are conservative and will not be outlived by this season's passing. The fabrics are excellent and are admirably tailored. Details are difficult in such a varied stock. The right way is to see these splendid bargains not to read about them. Come in today.

COATS FOR YOUR CHILDREN

Do you want Coats for children that will stand the strain restless little wearers put upon them? Hunt's Coats will—that is as far as any garment can that is made of pure wool fabrics and not cast iron.

The entire stock is now radically reduced. Coats for girls 12 to 14 years old, $2.98. Not this season's models but splendid values. Coats for children 2 to 10 years old, all new this season, at great reductions.

HANDSOME, ALL-WOOL SWEATER COATS

which will serve a dozen or more uses now and be ready for Spring when the Winter Coat is discarded.

Reduced as follows:
Gray, white, cardinal, tan, in sizes 36 to 42 for women. $2.50 Sweaters $1.85.
Red, white, gray, in sizes 32, 34 for misses. $3.00 Sweaters $2.25.
Red, white, gray, in sizes 32, 34 for misses. $1.75 Sweaters $1.30.
$2.00 Sweaters $1.50.
